

I support the ARRL in their request that there be changes to the entry level and intermediate amateur radio license, including additional hf privileges and dropping the morse code requirement for these classes. While retaining morse code for the extra class. Thanks